MDCCLI.

To the PUBLIC.

WE have annexed our Authorities for ascribing those Tracts to Mr. Trenchard, which are imputed to Him. Mr. Collins, who was intimate with both him and Mr. Gordon, has, in his Catalogue, ascertained most of the Pieces here inserted; as to the others, we appeal to their surviving Friends for the Truth of our asserting, We know them to be so.

1. Argument against Standing Armies, 1st Part, 1697
2. Argument, &c. 2d Part 1697
3. Answer to the Ballancing Letter, by the Author of the Argument, &c. 1697
4. History of Standing Armies, &c. 1698

All these acknowledged to be Mr. Trenchard's, and several Times printed with his Name.

5. Thoughts of a Member, &c. 1719
6. Reflections on the Old Whig 1719
7. Comparison of the Proposals, &c. 1720
8. Con-

8. Considerations on the Public Debts, &c.

1720

9. The Natural History of Superstition 1709

For the Authority of these, see the Article Trenchard in the General Dictionary; likewise Collins's Catalogue 1st Part; and Mr. Gordon refers to No. 8 as Mr. Trenchard's in one of his Cato's Letters.

10. A Letter of Thanks from the Author of the Comparison of the Proposals of the Bank and South-sea Companies, to the Author of the Examination of the South-sea Scheme, &c.

This is likewise mentioned in the General Dictionary as Mr. Trenchard's.

THE CONTENTS.

AN Argument shewing, That a Standing Army is inconsistent with a Free Government, and absolutely destructive to the Constitution of the English Monarchy.
By J. Trenchard, Esq; Page 3.

The Second Part of an Argument, &c. With Remarks on the late publish'd List of King James's Irish Forces in France. By J. Trenchard, Esq; 31

A Letter from the Author of the Argument against a Standing Army, to the Author of the Ballancing Letter. By J. Trenchard, Esq; 48

A Short History of Standing Armies in England. By J. Trenchard, Esq; 57

The Thoughts of a Member of the Lower House, in Relation to a Project for restraining and limiting the Power of the Crown in the future Creation of Peers. By J. Trenchard, Esq; 107

Some Reflections on a Pamphlet, called, The Old Whig.
By J. Trenchard, Esq; 115

A Modest Apology for Parson Alberoni, Governor to King Philip, a Minor, and universal Curate of the whole Spanish Monarchy; the whole being a short, but unanswerable Defence of Priestcraft, and a New Confutation of the Bishop of Bangor. By T. Gordon, Esq; 119

An

The CONTENTS.

- An Apology for the Danger of the Church; proving, that the Church is, and ought to be always in Danger; and that it would be dangerous for her to be out of Danger. Being a Second Part of the Apology for Parson Alberoni. By T. Gordon, Esq;* 145
- A Dedication to a Great Man, concerning Dedications; discovering amongst other wonderful Secrets, what will be the present Posture of Affairs a thousand Years hence. By T. Gordon, Esq;* 169
- A Letter to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury; proving, That his Grace cannot be the Author of the Letter to an eminent Presbyterian Clergyman in Swifferland, in which the present State of Religion in England is blackened and exposed, and the present Ministry are misrepresented and traduced. By T. Gordon, Esq;* 192
- A true Account of a Revelation lately discover'd to Jeremiah van Hufen, a German Physician, as he deliver'd it on Oath before John Shepherd, Esq; one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, foretelling many strange Events, particularly the End of the World. By T. Gordon, Esq;* 216
- A Comparison between the Proposals of the Bank and the South-Sea Company, wherein is shewn, that the Proposals of the first are much more advantageous to the Publick, than those of the latter, if they do not offer such Terms to the Annuitants as they will accept of. By J. Trenchard, Esq;* 221
- Some Considerations upon the State of our Public Debts in general, and of the Civil List in particular. By J. Trenchard, Esq;* 228
- A Learned Dissertation upon Old Women, Male and Female, Spiritual and Temporal in all Ages, whether in Church, State, or Exchange-Alley; very seasonable to be read at all Times, but especially at these Times. By T. Gordon, Esq;* 249

The CONTENTS.

- Considerations upon the approaching Peace, and upon the Importance of Gibraltar to the British Empire: being the Second Part of the Independent Whig.* By T. Gordon, Esq; 268
- A Letter to a Leading Great Man, concerning the Rights of the People to petition, and the Reasonableness of complying with such Petitions.* By T. Gordon, Esq; 284
- A Supplement to the London Journal of March 25. 1721; being the State of the Case relating to the Surrender of Mr. Knight farther considered.* By T. Gordon, Esq; 301
- The Character of an Independent Whig.* By T. Gordon, Esq; 311
- A Discourse of Standing Armies; shewing, the Folly, Uselessness, and Danger of Standing Armies in Great Britain.* By T. Gordon, Esq; 334
- The Nature and Weight of the Taxes of the Nation; shewing that by the Continuance of heavy Taxes and Impositions, and the Misapplication of Public Money, Trade is destroy'd, the Poor increased; and the Miseries and Misfortunes of the whole Kingdom demand the Consideration of the Freeholders of Great Britain, at the ensuing Election.* By T. Gordon, Esq; 355
- The Natural History of Superstition.* By John Trenchard, Esq; 378
